

NAPPP Trainer/Consultant

Dr. Cynthia Erickson is currently an Assistant Professor of Education at the University of Mobile. She is working with the University's Student Success Center to implement a Peer Helping/Leader Program that will train local high schools in Peer Helping strategies. She has 29 years of teaching experience in Alabama and Georgia. Her teaching experience includes teaching in K-12 settings in Mobile and Baldwin Counties in Alabama and in Cobb and Gwinnett Counties, GA. She has taught Peer Helpers in the high school setting for the past 12 years. Additionally, she has trained teachers and counselors statewide in Peer Helping and dropout prevention. She has written numerous grants, presented papers at national conferences and has published papers in peer reviewed journals. In addition, Dr. Erickson was the 2014 National Peer Professional Programs Teacher of the Year.